O R D E R:

It was laid down in the Government Order first cited, that spinners constituting a family would not be eligible for subsidy on more than 150 hanks a year. Subsequently in reply to an enquiry from the Honorary Regional Khadi Officer, Masulipatam, the Provincial Textile Commissioner issued instructions that subsidy should be paid up to the maximum of 150 hanks for families consisting of three adults and two children or less and that for bigger families consisting of more than 3 adults and 2 childre, the upper limit be increased at the rate of 40 hanks per adult and 20 hanks per child for the extra members. A question has now been raised whether the instructions of the Provincial Textile Commissioner had the approval of the Government and whether the maximum of 150 hanks on which subsidy could be paid should be reduced in respect of familites consisting of less than 3 adults and 2 children. The Government have examined the question in consultation with the Honorary Regional Khadi Officers and direct (i) that the instructions of the Provincial Textile Commissioner regarding the limits up to which subsidy may be paid be ratified and (ii) that the maximum limit of 150 hanks be allowed to stand even in respect of families consisting of less than 3 adulsts and 2 children.
